Canton Senior Center History

The Canton Senior Center is used daily by several different groups. Community members gather to play cards, whist, bridge, mahjong, or pool. In addition to the daily events, the building is used by several community groups for monthly meetings or family gatherings.

The building was built by Thorson in 1921, which was given to the city for the youth. There was gym space and bleachers around the upstairs to watch games being played. Later known as "The Link" it was a local hangout for teens with a concession stand, juke box and pinball machines. A group of members from the community met at the time to discuss ways to help our elderly population. For many, it was difficult to have a home cooked nutritious meal. This led a member of the group to approach the Nursing Home about starting a meal program. Soon, the program outgrew the nursing home and went searching for another solution. Members of the group approached Active Generations about providing a meal program in Canton and the Senior Center Board was formed.

The Board approached the city and made an agreement that the city would provide a safe place to hold the meal program. The city is responsible for the outside of the building, and the Board responsible for the inside. Active Generations agreed to provide staff, equipment, and the raw food cost. In return, Active Generations received all meal donations and unspecified donation gifts. The nutritional meal program is subsidized by the state and federal government, which is received by the parent company to offset the costs. In 2018, the Senior Board chose to leave the parent company of Active Generations and they joined Rural Outreach Community Services (ROCS) based in Wagner. ROCS is also the parent company of the bus transit service in Canton.

The local kitchen chooses their menu from a file of state approved menus and recipes based on nutritional value. 800 meals every month are prepared in the kitchen. There are 20 households who also receive delivered meals. In-house dining brings approximately 20-40 people every day. Anyone regardless of age can eat. If over the age of sixty, the suggested donation is $5 and under the age of sixty, $8. To help the staff prepare, they request anyone who is planning on coming to sign up ahead of time. There is a daily kitchen staff of 2 employees and 1 cook/manager.

Volunteers are a huge part of operations for the Senior Center, Meals on Wheels and during noon meals. The meals leave the Senior Center at 11 am to be delivered. These volunteers are important because they may provide the only contact with the outside world for most of these clients and can also be used as a well-being check. If the client doesn't answer the door or is feeling ill, the appropriate steps can then be taken by the site manager. Lunch at the Senior Center is at 11:30 Monday-Friday. Volunteers are also needed at the center during this time to help the elders by providing fellowship, setting tables, pouring coffee, and carrying meals for clients. Socialization is an important part of the elderly's lives, as most live alone.

If you would like to volunteer, you can contact Deb Harris at 605 987 5520.

Caught by Your Own Trap

My oldest son has figured out how to make a fun pranking device. He took a mouse trap, covered the spring arm with duct tape so that it can hold some airsoft bb's, and then he extended some fishing line to make a trip wire to trigger it.

Since he likes playing airsoft, he decided that this has potential to be more than just a pranking device. So he began to calculate how he could implement it into game play. One of his concerns however was that he not place it where he or his teammates would end up being the target rather than their opponents.

His concerns remind me of Proverbs 26:27, "He who digs a pit will fall into it, And he who rolls a stone, it will come back on him."

The Proverbs however, are not talking about a game of airsoft. They are talking about the dangers of acting foolishly and not doing what God expects from us. Just before vs 27, the Proverb warn about stirring up strife. Often when people do that, they end up hurting themselves as much or more than they hurt their opponents.

Rolling a stone or digging a pit for an opponent tends to be more of an offensive rather than defensive action. Of course the mouse trap could be used to defend a strategic point. Still, there is a difference between protecting oneself and going on the attack. This is the difference between justice and vengeance.

When someone has done wrong we must seek justice. Information about the injustice must be shared with the proper authorities with the hope that justice will be served. In an imperfect world justice does not always prevail, but that does not mean that we should resort to vengeance.

It is not uncommon for strife to be stirred up and for people who do not have all the facts to stir things up even further. All we have to do is look at the political landscape in our country to see examples on both the left and the right of this very thing happening. Both of our major parties have experienced some major embarrassment after "rocks that were rolled" rolled back on them. We have even witnessed violent action from those on the extreme edges of both parties as the quest for vengeance over injustices got out of hand. Too often things got out of hand because people were stirred up by false or incomplete information. The flames were fed to make people more angry than they should have been.

For example, the important message of rejecting racism was lost through false claims of racism in the Jessie Smollett case. Then legitimate concerns about making sure our elections are fair got lost by extreme ideas from the "Kracken Lady." Soon people on both ends of the political spectrum had reason to be embarrassed and the real concerns for injustice got overshadowed. Further people got hurt because strife had been instigated to extremes that should have never been reached.

What we witness on the political landscape makes news headlines, so it is easy to be familiar with it, but the Proverbs are important for helping each of us individually in our day to day lives. Too often when we get upset we end up making things worse for ourselves and our teammates. This is especially true when instead of showing grace, we start to dig pits and roll rocks. Jesus had the power to put people into pits or to crush them with rocks, yet instead he came filled with grace and truth.

When injustice has been done, we should be willing to speak the truth. But we must be careful that we not speak or act in a vengeful way that could do more harm than good. We should be reminded to live like Christ as we show love to our neighbors. We should take a firm stand against injustice while still being gentle toward the world around us. www.southtownchurch.com

Canton Volunteer Firefighter Kyle Lease explains to first graders the equipment that is housed on the pumper unit. The fire department annually visits the school and daycares to teach younger children about the important rules of fire safety, but also to show students a firefighter in full turn-out gear. Recently the department began introducing the firefighter without the gear, then students were able to see the effort it takes to put on the turn-out gear. This also helps alleviate the fears of a stranger with a helmet/mask, which would be the first person they see in case of a fire in their home. This has dramatically improved the response of the children, according to Lease, who says the image can be scary if kids aren't prepared for the shock of seeing a firefighter come into the room in full gear.

The Canton C-Hawk football team traveled to Hartford on Friday night to take on the West Central Trojans on their homecoming. A LOOK BACK AT THE STORIES AND HISTORY OF LINCOLN COUNTY

When you look at the history of Canton, South Dakota the name “Lawrence” looms quite large over our prairie landscape. Ernest Orlando (E. O.) Lawrence was recently inducted into the first C-Hawk Community Hall of Fame for his achievements in the world of physics, winning the Noble Prize and inventing the cyclotron. His brother John did some amazing things too becoming “the father of nuclear medicine.” In 1983 he received the Enrico Fermi Award, the Department of Energy’s highest scientific honor.

You have to look no further than

Carl G. and Gunda Lawrence Family

Carl Gustavus Lawrence was born in Madison, Wis., on Jan. 12, 1871, to Ole Hundale Lawrence and Betha Marie Hull Lawrence. Ole Lawrence was an educated Norwegian immigrant who took up his profession of teaching among the frontier settlers in Wisconsin in 1840. Carl graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1894 and rode into South Dakota on a bicycle. He came to Canton to teach Latin and history at what was then Augustana College. His salary was 55 dollars per month for nine months. At that time the college was having financial troubles due to the depression. There were seven faculty members and 100 students, 75 of whom were high school students.

Four years later Carl became Superintendent of Public Schools in Canton. He met and married Gunda Regina Jacobsen, who was in the high school mathematics teacher. She had graduated from the State Teachers College in Madison before becoming part of the Canton High School faculty. Upon accepting Carl’s proposal of marriage, Gunda conscientiously quit her teaching career and took a job as a “hired girl” in order to learn more about homemaking to make her a better wife. They were married Aug. 22, 1900. Carl was then one of the nation’s youngest superintendents of schools.

Carl remained as Canton Superintendent until 1906 when he became Lincoln County Superintendent for two terms. As County Superintendent, he believed there should be a connection between school and home life. He started “industrial education” clubs, which were forerunners to 4-H clubs. The clubs spread all over the state and got him into politics. He became the State Superintendent of Public Instruction in 1911 and held that position until 1914. He then returned to Canton to again be Superintendent of Public Schools until 1919, when he became President of Southern State Normal at Springfield from 1919 to 1933. (The library of the Springfield campus is named in his honor.) In 1933, he went to Aberdeen as President of Northern Normal and Industrial School in the years 1933-1939.

Carl and Gunda were blessed with two sons, Ernest Orlando and John Hundale, both born in Canton. Ernest became a physicist, best known for inventing the cyclotron and his work on the atomic bomb. John used his brother’s nuclear ideas and applied them to medicine, becoming the “Father of Nuclear Medicine.”

Gunda became ill in 1938 at the age of 65, and received the diagnosis of cancer of the pelvis at the Mayo Clinic. Ernest and John took her to California with them and applied their research in nuclear medicine to her. She was treated with a million x-rays using a tube invented by Sloan (a student) and Ernest Lawrence. She lived to be 83.

In 1939, Carl retired and joined his famous sons in Berkeley. Carl and Gunda celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at Berkeley in 1950.

While he was in Canton, Carl was the first President of South Dakota Luther League in 1898. He taught a Bible class at the Lutheran church. The Athenian Debating Society in Canton was organized by him and other like-minded fellows. He also helped organize the golf club in Canton, as well as in Springfield.

The Lawrences lived at 822 East Third when they were in Canton. They taught their sons the traditional values of pioneer America: honesty, morality, and fear of God. Those virtues and the values of hard work, initiative, and selfreliance have been evident in their careers.

E.O. and John’s father Carl to see where these two Canton born men got their drive to succeed and make the world a better place. In 1894, four years after arriving in South Dakota on his bicycle, Carl became the Supt. of Schools in Canton, a job he would hold not once but twice.

The following family history taken from the 1985 History of Lincoln County South Dakota will tell you all about Carl and his wife Gunda. Happy reading and be sure to check out Charlie Parr at the Canton Barn Sunday evening at 7:00 p.m.

Library News
Banned Book Week was a huge success here at our library. We were able to discuss with many of you why some titles have been banned or challenged throughout the country and why we draw attention to the importance of the harm of censorship. When we ban books, we’re closing off readers to people, places, and perspectives. But when we stand up for stories, we unleash the power that lies inside every book. We liberate the array of voices that need to be heard and the scenes that need to be seen. Let freedom read! Through our Adult Reading Challenge for the month of October, we encourage patrons to read a title that has been banned or challenged. Lastly, the Prairie Threads Quilt Guild display will be here through the end of October and new books arrive daily. Stop by and “check it out!”

Welcoming Home South Dakota’s Finest

By: Governor Kristi Noem
October 6, 2023

Welcoming troops home has always been one of my favorite parts of this job. Seeing the joy that our soldiers feel when they are reunited with their families is truly greater than words could ever describe.

I recently had the privilege of welcoming home 50 South Dakota National Guard soldiers with the Alpha Battery 1st Battalion 147th Field Artillery. Their unit is based out of Watertown, South Dakota, and they were deployed to Eagle Pass, TX to defend our Southern border at the beginning of September.

These brave men and women were deployed to help with Operation Lone Star – an effort led by Texas Governor Greg Abbott to secure the border and stop the smuggling of drugs, weapons, and people into the United States of America. I have been to the border multiple times, and it is clear that President Biden’s policies have created a warzone. That’s why I was the first governor to send troops to the border back in 2021, and it’s why I sent these soldiers this year.

There is no one that I trust more to protect our state and nation than the members of the South Dakota National Guard. Between visiting our men and women in uniform at the Southern border and welcoming them home to South Dakota, these soldiers showed me exactly why we can trust them so much. I’d like to share just a couple stories that show the strength and bravery of our troops.

SPC Thomas Frankenhoff was recognized for his actions on static observation points along the Rio Grande River in Eagle Pass, TX. He observed 81 illegal aliens breach the concertina wire and ran to aid Texas law enforcement in the apprehension of 81 illegal aliens. His motivation boosted unit morale, and his actions along the concertina wire directly aided in the apprehension of 13,800 illegal aliens.

SPC Thomas Seppala volunteered to join this mission as a 68W combat medic. He served on a previous border mission with the 153rd South Dakota Army National Guard. SPC Seppala is fluent in Spanish, and he knew that his ability to communicate with illegal immigrants made him an important asset to the mission.

These are just two examples of our soldiers going above and beyond the call of duty. So many more members of the South Dakota National Guard went the extra mile to help contribute to this mission and do their part to keep the United States secure.

I was honored to welcome the members of the Alpha Battery 1st Battalion 147th Field Artillery home to South Dakota. Our soldiers and their families sacrifice so much to serve our great state and nation. I could never thank them enough for their service.

Though our soldiers are home, the fight is not over. The situation at our Southern border is still a crisis. I am continuing to work with Republican governors across the country to do all we can to help, but federal action is needed. Thankfully, President Biden is finally starting to resume work on the border security wall – but it is too little, too late. I hope the Biden Administration will open their eyes to the warzone they have created and take action to secure our nation and ensure the safety of every American citizen.

The Big Three

BIG Update

Ten years ago, Winter Storm Atlas came bearing down across western South Dakota. It brought record amounts of snow for the month of October, dumping 55 inches over Lead, South Dakota. Tens of thousands of livestock tragically perished in the storm, and many areas had power outages that lasted a week or longer.

Many of us have never experienced a storm like that in our lifetime, and hopefully never will again. The unprecedented nature of this storm brought people together to clear debris and restore damage over the following months. South Dakotans are tough and resilient. Neighbors helping neighbors, strangers helping strangers is the norm in South Dakota, even when times are tough.

The devastation endured by many is disheartening, but the strength of South Dakota remains.

BIG Idea

This week, I met with the South Dakota Association of Healthcare Organizations (SDAHO) to discuss the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services' (CMS) proposed rule to require nursing homes to have an onsite RN 24 hours, 7 days a week and mandate minimum hours for RNs and CNAs. This rule would force nursing homes across South Dakota to close because they can't fulfill the requirement. In fact, the rule would cause nursing homes across America to close because Alaska is the only state that currently meets CMS's baseline. If the outcome of this rule is thousands of nursing homes closing, that certainly isn't the best for America. Like SDAHO, I oppose this decision, and I've been working in Congress to ensure CMS's rule does not get finalized.

BIG News

Unfortunately, the House made history this week. On Tuesday, eight Republican members of Congress (only 4% of Republicans) voted with every single Democrat to remove the Speaker of the House from his post. It is a historic move with detrimental consequences to our country and to the slim House Republican majority. We were making progress on lowering spending and securing the border – these eight members brought that progress to a halt.

Without a Speaker of the House, no legislative business can be conducted on the House Floor. This situation is a giant waste of America's time. We are 40 days away from a government shutdown and haven't passed the necessary funding bills to pay our military, the aviation bill, or the Farm Bill. America deserves better. I came to Congress to solve problems, it's unfortunate that eight of my colleagues don't feel the same.

Dave Says: When You Nickel and Dime Things, Nothing Gets Done Well

Dear Dave,

I'm currently on Baby Step 2, and I have about $7,000 in debt to pay off before I can move to bulking up my emergency fund in Baby Step 3. When you're paying off debt, what do you recommend for 401(k) contributions?

Rae

Dear Rae,

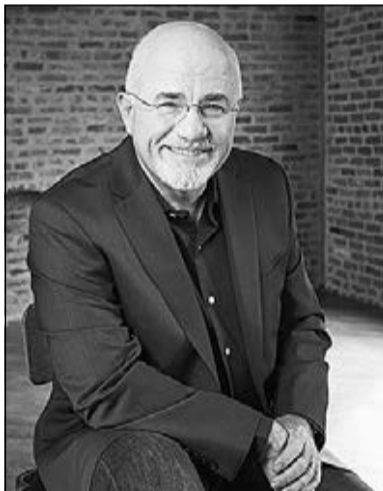

I recommend putting a temporary stop to investing while you're getting out of debt. Lots of people are shocked by this advice, and some disagree with it, because they're afraid of missing out on their employer's match or the wonders of compound interest. But before we go any further, let me emphasize one thing. The key word here is temporary.

Baby Step 1 is to save $1,000 as a starter emergency fund. Baby Step 2 is paying off all of your debt, except for your home, from smallest to largest using the debt snowball plan. During this time you're attacking your debt with incredible intensity, and putting every penny you can scrape together toward paying it off.

Working my plan, the average person can pay off all their debt, except for their home, in 18 to 24 months. Some folks can do it faster, and for some it takes a little longer. But during this time I want your financial focus to be on nothing but getting out of debt. Once that's done, you'll find you have a lot more control over your biggest wealth-building tool—your income.

Trying to accomplish too many things at once diminishes the ability to focus. And when you spend all your time nickel-and-dimeing everything, the result is that nothing at all gets done very well. You need to really move the needle and see results, because personal finance is 80 percent behavior and only 20 percent head knowledge. It's not so much a math issue, because if you'd been doing the math all along you wouldn't have a bunch of debt.

That's why, for a short period of time, I want you to concentrate with laser intensity on knocking out debt. Once that's out of the way, you can pour even more money into investing, saving and giving!

Fire Prevention Week

October 8-14

The Canton Fire Department will be having an open house from 10am-2pm on Saturday October 14th to celebrate the end of Fire Prevention Week. Hot dogs and root beer floats will be served. There will also be an inflatable set up for children and fire truck rides given.

Firefighter Roster 2023

Chief: Nate Laubach
1st Assistant: Devon Chaulk
2nd Assistant: Matt Mohen
Steward: Matt Manley
Treasurer: Dan Painter

Crew: Marshall Baldwin, Grant Edwards, Trevor Ekle, Johnny Grubs, Jake Jensen, Tim Johnson, Colton Laubach, Kaden Laubach, Tom Laubach, Alexander Levene, Evan Mckee, Chelsea Olson, Cody Steckelberg, Thomas Siemonsma, Pat Simpson, Joseph Stiegel, Jammy Strand, Caleb Swanson & Tony Warejcka

Follow these fire safety tips, and review them with other members of your household, to protect yourself, your property, your community and your loved ones.

Home Fires: KNOW THE DRILL

- Install smoke alarms on every level of your home, as well as inside and outside every sleeping area.
- Test smoke alarms monthly, and replace the batteries if needed.
- Purchase and learn how to safely use a fire extinguisher.
- Create a fire escape plan with your family, reviewing and practicing it twice a year.
- Your fire escape plan should include two exit points from every room, as well as a designated outdoor meeting spot.
- Make sure everyone in your family knows when and how to call 911 or the fire department.

PREVENT

- Turn off portable heaters whenever you leave a room or go to sleep.
- Never leave a candle burning unattended, and consider replacing traditional candles with battery-operated flameless versions.
- Keep matches and lighters out of reach from children, and make sure they know never to play with these items.
- Replace or repair loose plugs, exposed wiring or frayed extension cords, and avoid overloading outlets and extension cords.
- Keep any items that can catch fire at least three feet away from cooking and heating devices.
- Remain in the kitchen when frying, grilling or broiling food. Always turn off the stove if you leave the kitchen even for a brief period of time.

STAY ALIVE

- In the event of a fire, yell "Fire" repeatedly and evacuate immediately. Once outside, call 911 or the fire department, and never reenter a burning building for any reason.
- If a door or door handle feels warm to the touch, do not open it. Use an alternate escape route.
- If you must walk through smoke, get as close to the ground as possible to escape under the smoke, closing doors behind you.
- If your clothing catches fire, always remember to stop, drop and roll, covering your face with your hands.
- If you can't escape a room, close the door and cover vents and door cracks with a towel or cloth to keep out smoke. Call 911 or the fire department, and signal for help at the window with a piece of cloth or a flashlight.
- If you are unable to reach pets or someone in the home needing assistance, evacuate, call 911 and tell the emergency operator and firefighters where the person or pet is located.

District 16 Updates by Lems C-Hawks Win Two More Matches

District 16 Voters:
 Here is a list of bullet points that have filled my calendar in the last few months:
 Speaking with DOT on proposed fees to the city of Canton in regard to the Homecoming parade that utilizes Highway 18. The fee “went away” and a successful parade was the result! Go C-Hawks!
 Attending the Stockgrowers Conference in Rapid City. We have issues in retaining good, quality

There are so many other events and information I have gleaned over the summer. However, what has kept me hopping literally almost every day has been the CO2 pipeline vs. landowner debacle. Here is a brief overview of where we are today:
 After bringing legislation in the House which passed 40-28, HB1133 then failed in the Senate. Since we had no new state legislation, the pressure was brought new carbon dioxide pipelines rests largely with the individual states and counties through which the pipelines will operate and is governed by state and local law.” The PUC has said it will NOT override county ordinances. Therefore, landowners who have reached out to me in Lincoln and Turner counties want an ordinance for these new projects that would implement some guidelines going forward.

The C-Hawks volleyball team has been on a roll and winning more matches. The first was against Garretson last Thursday with scores of 25-15, 28-26 and 26-24. Jenna VanDeWeed lead the team in kills with 15 followed by Macy Plucker 11 and Danica Rozeboom with seven. Landree Meister racked up 42 assists. Macy Plucker had 9 digs and 3 ace serves. Jenna VanDeWeed had three blocks. Landree Meister had two blocks and 9 digs. Carmyn Peterson had 20 digs.

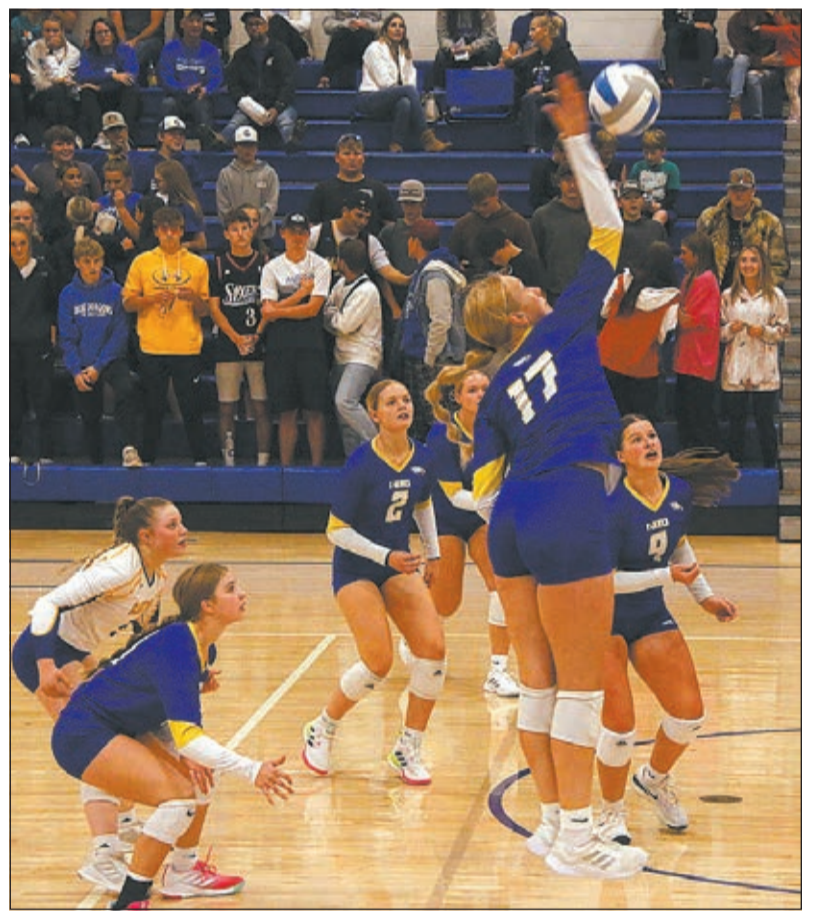

The next match was in Wagner on Saturday. Canton won in three games with scores of 25-16, 25-12 and 25-18. Plucker lead the team with 18 kills, three ace serves and 10 digs. Kiara King had six kills, three ace serves and three blocks. Jenna VanDeWeed had five kills, three ace serves and five blocks. Landree Meister had 30 assists and three ace serves. Carmyn Peterson lead the team with 13 digs and Autumn Ask 8.

beef in our state of South Dakota and the United States. Issues with imports crowding out our home grown products are definite concerns that need to be addressed.
 The 30 x 30 Summit I attended in Dallas, TX addressed the concerns of the current administration wanting to set aside 30% of lands and waters in the United States for conservation efforts. There are multiple issues with this that we need to address. PLEASE WATCH THE MOVIE “NO FARMERS, NO FOOD” which can be found online. Just type it in to your search engine and you will see it. Eating bugs sounds so far-fetched, but this is already a reality overseas.
 Attending an event addressing election integrity issues. There is much to be learned on this topic, and we can always improve on the way we do things. Free and fair elections were historically at the core of who we have been as a nation.

to bear on local governments to act. Actions myself and others were involved in or observed included:
 *encouraging Counties, Planning & Zoning, and Townships to pass moratoriums, ordinances, and resolutions
 *concerned citizens contacting the Public Utilities Commission *reaching out to the Governor’s office with concerns
 *having a rally in Leola, SD
 *”Property Rights Rally” at the Capitol in Pierre
 *Testifying at the Navigator PUC hearing in August
 *Seeing the result of Minnehaha & Moody county ordinances in the Navigator hearing move the commissioners to deny the permit
 *Summit Carbon Solutions denied in part for the same reasons
 Where are we today? In the 6 states that the pipelines have been proposed, to date they do not have one siting permit. The federal agency (PHMSA) has issued a letter to the pipeline companies saying “the responsibility for siting

Today, on October 6, at least 50 landowners met at the Lincoln County Courthouse to present another ordinance on behalf of landowners. This would bring added safety, offer some protection to property values, and bring guidance to the development of the region. The P&Z had previously passed 2 ordinances, with the county commission voting it down. Now that we have essentially a green light from the PUC and PHMSA, it would make sense to see our officials now take the initiative to move ahead with an ordinance.
 There is so much here to unpack, it is difficult to do in a few paragraphs. Please do not hesitate to contact me with questions or concerns on this or other topics. My legislative email is karllems@sdlegislature.gov.
 Respectfully,

Understanding the 504 Important Civil Rights law providing educational benefits for kids with hidden disabilities and/or ADHD

By Virginia Olson
Diabetes. Dyslexia. Autism spectrum disorder. Anxiety. Traumatic brain injury. ADHD. Asthma. Hearing loss. Low vision. A heart condition. For a student, who otherwise on the outside may appear like everyone else, dealing with any of these “hidden” disabilities can make school difficult at times.

But a 504 Plan could help make school more accommodating.

A 504 Plan ensures a student is receiving the most effective accommodations for his or her specific circumstances that will ensure academic success, educational opportunities and fair access to the learning environment.

For a parent, is important to understand what a 504 Plan is, what accommodations a student can receive, what is covered under a 504 Plan, how students access or make sure accommodations are followed through, who oversees a 504 Plan, if there is a designated area to go for the accommodations or services and how parents can advocate for those accommodations.

But what exactly is a 504?

Actually, 504 is part of a civil rights law. Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, commonly called “Section 504,” is a federal law that protects students from discrimination based on a disability. It is an anti-discrimination, civil rights statute that requires the needs of students with disabilities to be met as adequately as the needs of the non-disabled students.

Section 504 states that: “No otherwise qualified individual with a disability in the United States, as defined in section 706(8) of this title, shall, solely by reason of her or his disability, be excluded from the participation in, or be denied the benefits of, or be subject to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance...”

There’s a lot to know about Section 504. Here are some commonly asked questions:

Who is protected under Section 504?

To be protected under Section 504, a student must be determined to: (i) have a mental or physical impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities; (ii) have a record of such an impairment; or (iii) being regarded as having such an impairment.”

What is an “impairment” as used under the Section 504 definition?

An impairment as used in Section 504 may include any disability, long-term illness, or various disorder that “substantially” reduces or lessens a student’s ability to access learning in the educational setting because of a learning-, behavior- or health-related condition.

Many students have conditions or disorders that are not readily apparent to others. They may include conditions such as specific learning disabilities, diabetes, epilepsy and allergies. Hidden disabilities such as low vision, poor hearing, heart disease or chronic illness may not be obvious, but if they substantially limit that child’s ability to receive appropriate education as defined by Section 504, they may be considered to have an “impairment” under Section 504 standards. As a result, these students, regardless of their intelligence, will be unable to fully demonstrate their ability or attain educational benefits equal to those provided to students without disabilities.

What are “major life activities”?

Major life activities include, but are not limited to self-care, manual tasks, walking, seeing, speaking, sitting, thinking, learning, breathing, concentrating, interacting with others and working. As of January 1, 2009, with reauthorization of Americans with Disabilities Amendment Act (ADAA) this list has been expanded to also include the life activities of reading, concentrating, standing, lifting, bending, etc. This may include individuals with AD/HD, dyslexia, cancer, diabetes, severe allergies chronic asthma, Tourette’s syndrome, digestive disorders and temporary disabilities (broken writing arm, broken leg, etc.).

What does “substantially limits” mean?

Substantially limits is not defined in federal regulations. However, in a letter from the Office of Civil Rights, it states, “this is a determination to be made by each local school district and depends on the nature and severity of the person’s disabling condition.” New guidance from the Americans with Disabilities Amendment Act states that Section 504 standards must conform with the ADAA and is “intended to afford a broad scope of protection to eligible persons.” In considering substantial limitations, students must be measured against the same age, nondisabled peers in the general population.

Who can refer a child for consideration for evaluation under Section 504?

Anyone can refer a child for evaluation under section 504. However, while anyone can make a referral, such as a parent or a doctor, the school district must also have reason to believe that the child is in need of services under Section 504 due to a “disability.” If a parent requests a referral for evaluation, and the school district refuses, the school district must provide the parent with notice of their procedural rights under Section 504.

Who decides whether a student is qualified and eligible for services under Section 504?

According to federal regulations: “...a placement decision is to be made by a group of persons who are knowledgeable about the child, the meaning of the evaluation data, placement options, least restrictive environment requirements, and comparable facilities.” This group of persons is often called a 504 team.

Unlike Special Education, Section 504 does not require or even mention that parents are to be part of the 504 team. The decision to include parents in the 504 team is a determination that is made by each school district and should be spelled out in the district’s procedures for implementing Section 504. Parents should at least be asked and encouraged to contribute any information that they may have that would be helpful to the 504 team in making their determination of what the child may need. Schools are expected to make sound educational decisions as to what the child needs in order to receive an appropriate education.

What information is used in doing an evaluation under Section 504?

Under Section 504, no formalized testing is required. The 504 team should look at grades over the past several years, teacher reports, information from parents or agencies, state assessment scores or other school-administered tests, observations, discipline reports, attendance records, health records and adaptive behavior information. Schools must consider a variety of sources. A single source of information such as a doctor’s report cannot be the only information considered. Schools also must assure that all information submitted is documented and considered.

Can a child be placed under Section 504 without a parent’s knowledge?

No. Parents must always be given notice before their child is evaluated and/or placed under Section 504. Parents must also be given a copy of their child’s Section 504 accommodation plan if the 504 team determines that the child is eligible. They should read the plan and know what the accommodations are.

What is the difference between an individual Educational Plan (IEP) and a 504 Plan?

There are subtle but important differences between an IEP and a 504 plan.

Not all students who have disabilities require special instruction. IEP’s create specialized instruction and related services. Students with 504 Plans do not require specialized instruction, but accommodations and/or related aids and services. And like the IEP, a 504 Plan should be updated annually to ensure that the student is receiving effective accommodations for his or her circumstances.

Assistant Principal Kay Bass, who leads the 504 team at Harrisburg High School, says individuals who have a disability that limits a major life activity can qualify for a 504.

“Students who do not qualify for an IEP and special education services may qualify for a 504 and receive protection from discrimination. To be eligible for a 504, individuals must have documentation of their physical and mental disability typically from a medical provide indicating a qualifying disability.”

Bass encourages parents to be proactive and advocate for their child.

“If your child has a disability that does not impact their ability to learn, but does impact their life activities, you can work with your child’s principal/504 coordinator to develop a 504 plan, which indicates specific accommodations needed.”

C-Hawks Football Improves to 5-2

Steffensen Places Sixth

The Canton C-Hawk football team hosted Vermillion and rolled to a 42-13 victory as they prepare to head out west to face the 2-5 Custer Wildcats to earned wins over Hill City and Lead Deadwood and losses to West Central, Tri Valley, RC Christian, Lennox and Vermillion. Kickoff will be at 6:00pm on the 13th.

Canton started out the game with the ball and 2 minutes into the game Cain Wallner took the handoff and headed left and found daylight and ran for a 52 yard touchdown as the Hawks took a 6-0 lead at 10:00. Vermillion got the ball in Canton territory at the 42 but on a 4th down at the 35 Canaan McCracken got a good tackle on the scramble to turn the ball over on downs but Canton couldn't make any ground and was forced to punt. The Tanagers were forced to punt on their next series and they pinned the C-Hawks back on the 1 with a great punt but then the hawks went to their ground attach with Cain Wallner having runs of 20 and 7 then McCracken followed Dallas King for another 5 to the 33 yard line. Two plays later Wallner took the handoff at the 33 and he got thru the line and broke 2 tackles and ran downfield until being tackled at the 8 yard line for the 59 yard gain and a 1st down at the Tanagers 8 yard line. McCracken ran it down to the 2 then Wallner finished it off with a run behind the blocks from Traun Cook, Pierce Mastalir and Hunter Richmond for the touchdown. Canton took the 12-0 lead after the extra point pass was incomplete with :33 left in the 1st quarter.

the Hawks 30 turning the ball back to Canton at their 30 yard line. The Hawks lost yards on their next plays forcing a punt but on the punt return the Tanagers fumbled the ball and Richmond recovered the ball giving Canton the ball at the Vermillion 42. Runs of 7 and 20 by Wallner set up 2 runs by McCracken and the last one a 4 yard touchdown run behind Wallner and Matt Anderson and with the extra point pass from Mulder to Anderson the Hawks took a 28-7 lead heading into halftime.

Halverson started out the 2nd half with a good tackle on the kickoff then tackles from Sheridan and Anderson forced a Vermillion punt putting the Hawks at the 40 yard line and runs from Wallner and King moved the ball down to the Canton 8 yard line. Granum ran it down to the 1 then King followed Mastalir and Anderson into the end zone for the touchdown then Mulder ran in the extra point and the Hawks made the score 36-7 at 6:29. Vermillion was forced to punt and the ball was downed at the 5 yard line but on the first play Wallner took the handoff and headed around the right side and broke a couple tackles and found open field but had to break two more tackles before getting into the end zone for the 95 yard touchdown run. The 95 yard run is the longest run in Canton history as he passed Dave Anderson's 94 yard run in 1958. The extra point was no good and Canton took a 42-7 lead at 2:27. Vermillion was forced to punt the ball back over to the Hawks as the 3rd quarter ended with the Hawks leading 42-7.

the field and cut outside and scored and on the extra point kick it was blocked by Carson Ross making the score 42-13 with 7 minutes left in the game. Canton ran out the clock runs from Kieshon Smith of 6, 12 and a Rhead pass to Brayden Qualseth for 28 yards moved it into the Hawks side of the field then Mason Bentz ran the clock out and Canton won their 5 game against only 2 defeats 42-13. Cain Wallner finished the game with 300 yards rushing and that is the 4th highest total behind Logan Dolan 348, Cody Majeres 322, Kayden Verley 309 (championship game in 2019).

The Tanagers were at the 46 yard line to start the 2nd quarter and a good pass play moved them into Canton territory at the 32 then Vermillion found a wide open receiver down the middle of the field and passed to him for a touchdown and with the extra point kick they made the score 12-7 at 10:15 of the 2nd quarter. Canton got the kickoff at the 35 yard line and after runs from Wallner and McCracken they were across midfield then Teague Granum followed blocks from John Halverson and Casey Sheridan for 13 yards then 2 Granum runs later he scored on a 8 yard run behind the blocks from Halverson, Richmond and Cook. Braxton Mulder found Arthur Benoit in the end zone for the extra point and the Hawks pulled ahead 20-7 at 6:57. Vermillion got a couple 1st downs and moved into Canton's side of the field on their next series but a sack by Wallner and Mastalir ended their drive at

It was a great week for me as I spent the week down in Austin Texas meeting my new granddaughter Nora and it was so great to finally get to hold her and let her know just how cool her grandpa is and after a week she knows and now I can't wait till Christmas to get to hold her again. Teresa and myself got to hang out with Emily, Dylan and Nora and we feel so good about our time down there except the 95-degree weather but it did make going swimming real nice. I flew home Saturday and she came home a few days later but that will give her a lot more alone time with Nora but we are both very blessed now with 3 granddaughters.
 Great win Friday night for the Hawks and I just wanted to tell you a couple different numbers you should know and first is Cain Wallner running a 95-yard touchdown run and that is the longest run for a touchdown or not but in Canton football history there hasn't been any longer as Cain goes to the top as he passes Dave Anderson's run of 94 back in 1958. I don't think Cain was around back then but congrats to Cain. Cain also rushed for 300 yards which puts him with the 4th best single game rushing total behind Logan Dolen at 348, Cody Majeres at 322, Kayden Verley at 309 and now Cain at 300. He replaced Mitch Johnson who held the record for many years with 284 back in 1976. Logan also has the next one at 270 so these are all great records but don't forget you can't get these with out the offensive linemen. I have been lucky enough to see everyone of these but what stands out to me is Kayden did his on the SDSU field in the Class A Championship game against Lennox when the Hawks won the title but all of these are great and congrats to all you guys.

 Another congratulations goes out to our volleyball team as they had a pretty successful week of games as they gave SF Christian a good fight but lost 3-0 but so does a lot of teams then they played Garretson with a similar record as we do and we won 3-0 and they were close games but good win. Then they topped it off with a 3-0 win over Wagner who is ranked in the top 4 with a 17-4 record compared to ours at 13-5. We won the games 25-16, 25-12, 25-18 to sweep them and that is a great win for the girls and hopefully moves us into the rankings. They play in Vermillion on Thursday after winning 4 of 5 last weeks and getting close to playoffs coming up soon. Good Luck girls as you get ready to qualify for state this year.

Also, a huge Good Luck to our cross-country teams as they have their region meet Thursday at the Hiawatha golf course with action starting at 2:00 so run hard and good luck to everyone.

Finally as I was flying home from Austin I had a stop in the Dallas airport and thought this will be great with me as a Niners fan and all this cowboy stuff but I didn't see a lot of it then I walked down the hallway and there it was a huge shop and from where it was standing (OUT side of course), they had plenty for people to find what they would need but for me I knew that there was nothing I would need. I took a picture of the place and kept moving hoping to not see another one. I say this because their game was Sunday night and it is a good rivalry and even better to that is the Niners kicked the heck out of them so that is even better. So I had a good football weekend as Canton and the Huskers each won on Friday night and anytime you get a Husker win it's a good thing and then follow that up with the Niners beating the Cowboys it makes it a great football weekend. Now if the Braves could get some things figured out I would be real happy. Have a great week and hope your teams give you a win unless your playing my teams.
