Coffee with the Canton Cops

The Canton Police Department took time out of their day to have coffee with kids and adults on Friday. The young kids got to meet and ask questions of all kinds. Having an event like this creates a good relationship between residents and the local law enforcement.

Currently the Canton Police Department has 6 officers. Police Chief Korben Leegard, Ryan Bates, Joshua Livermore, Hunter Ray, Robert Wells, and Travis Valdez who serves as the school resource officer. Robert Wells just recently joined the department after years of correctional, prison and military experience.

March 26, 2025

Douglas Paul Larson, age 67, passed away unexpectedly on Wednesday, March 26, 2025 at Avera McKennan Hospital in Sioux Falls surrounded by his loved ones. Funeral services were held Monday, March 31, 2025 at Redeemer Free Lutheran Church, Canton.

Doug was born on March 22, 1958 in Canton to Palmer and Vera Jean Larson. He graduated from Canton High School in 1976. After graduation, he started farming full-time on his family farm east of Worthing. He married his high school sweetheart, Nanetta VanDeStroet, on July 8, 1977. Doug and Netta made their home near the family farm where they raised their 3 children: Josh, Stacy, and Kasi. Doug spent his life raising his family, farming the land, and most recently enjoying his grandchildren. Doug enjoyed restoring old tractors, tractor pulling, having coffee with his best friend Len on Sunday mornings, driving around the farm, checking on the crops, and quiet time at home with his family. He lived for his grandchildren. He loved spending summer days at the racetrack and summer nights at the ball fields. He enjoyed sitting courtside at basketball and volleyball games, matside at wrestling matches, and attending all the kids’ school activities. He also enjoyed the ‘small moments’ like cruising in the golf cart, playing a game of dice, picking up the grandkids for ice-cream, and watching them running and playing in his yard. Doug had just recently decided to retire after 47 years of farming. Anyone who knew Doug knew he was a quiet man who worked hard but loved harder.

Doug’s survivors include his wife, Netta; 3 children, Josh (Kari) Larson of Worthing and their children Oliver, Bodie, and Vera; Stacy (Justis) Lund of Lennox and their children Maci, Gerrit, and Brooks; Kasi (Bryan) Roberts of Canton and their children Crayten, Kambree, Kenli, and Cruz; sister, Cheryl Carlson of Harrisburg; brother-in-law, John Boer of Alvord, Iowa; 5 extended children, Hunter and Trapper Gemelli, Gena, Katreina, and Shantelle Blade; mother-in-law, Leona VanDeStroet; Netta’s siblings, Kristi (Butch) Fjellanger of Jasper, Minn.; Jolene (Kelly) Nelson of Canton; Aldon (Brenda) VanDeStroet of Colton; Galen (Carol) VanDeStroet of Garretson; Jeff (Jackie) VanDeStroet of Canton; and many nieces and nephews.

Doug was proceeded in death by his parents, Palmer and Jean Larson; sister, Marcia Boer; brother-in-law, Steve Carlson; father-in-law, Gerrit VanDeStroet; and niece, Angie Carlson. www.andersonandsonsfh.com

DANR Announces Nearly $140 Million for Statewide Environmental Projects

PIERRE, S.D. – Today, the South Dakota Department of Agriculture and Natural Resources (DANR) announced that the Board of Water and Natural Resources has approved $139,791,400 in loans and grants for drinking water, wastewater, and solid waste projects in South Dakota.

The $139,791,400 total consists of $121,686,200 in low-interest loans and $18,105,200 in grants to be administered by the Department of Agriculture and Natural Resources. “Safe and reliable water, wastewater, and solid waste infrastructure is essential for protecting our natural resources and building stronger communities for future generations, said DANR Secretary Hunter Roberts. “I want to thank the Board of Water and Natural Resources for approving the funding recommendations.”

Funds were awarded from DANR’s Drinking Water State Revolving Fund Program, Clean Water State Revolving Fund Program, Consolidated Water Facilities Construction Program, Water Environment Fund, and Solid Waste Management Program to the following:

Canton received a $1,946,000 Drinking Water State Revolving Fund loan to make utility improvements on West Street and replace the existing water main line. The loan terms are 3.75% for 30 years.

Canton also received a $1,827,000 Clean Water State Revolving Fund loan to make sanitary and storm sewer improvements, increasing capacity on West Street. The loan terms are 3.75% for 30 years.

South Dakota Department of Agriculture and Natural Resources (DANR) received a $250,000 Solid Waste Management grant to allow DANR’s Inspection, Compliance, and Remediation program to work with local entities to collect and dispose of PFAS foam or other PFAS products. Funds may also be available to regional landfills for waste tire clean-ups, or to school districts to remove old and potential chemical hazards or used for other solid waste cleanups or removals deemed necessary.

South Dakota Solid Waste Management Association received a $39,500 Solid Waste Management grant to support hosting the Solid Waste Association of North America’s Manager of Landfill Operations Certification course in Pierre, South Dakota.

Additional Details:
Appropriations from the Water Environment Fund and Consolidated Water Facilities Construction Program are funded in part by revenues from the Petroleum Release Compensation Tank Inspection Fee and the sale of lotto tickets. These appropriations provide funding for water, wastewater, and watershed projects. The Legislature annually appropriates dedicated water and waste funding for the Consolidated Water Facilities Construction Program through the Governor’s Omnibus Water Funding Bill.

The Solid Waste Management Program provides loans and grants for solid waste disposal, recycling, and waste tire projects. The Legislature annually appropriates dedicated funding for the Solid Waste Management Program through the Omnibus Water Funding Bill.

The State of South Dakota and the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency fund the Clean Water and Drinking Water State Revolving Fund Programs, which provide low-interest loans for wastewater, stormwater, water conservation, nonpoint source projects, and public drinking water system projects. The programs are funded through a combination of federal appropriations, loan repayments, and bonds.

Southtown Commentary

By Pastor Jerry Miller

To Get Paid, Build Right

Imagine that you hired a carpenter to build a new garage for you on a new concrete foundation. You were planning to have the old foundation removed because it was uneven and falling apart.

You showed the contractor the new foundation but when his crew came, they built the garage on the old crumbling foundation. Thankfully you had a contract specifying exactly where you wanted the garage built, so you did not have to pay the contractor.

I Corinthians 3 tells us about God rewarding his people at the end of their lives. In order to be rewarded, our work has to be built on the right foundation. The Apostle Paul speaks as if he is the general contractor who told you where to build when he says, “According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder I laid a foundation, and another is building upon it. But let each man be careful how he builds upon it. For no man can lay a foundation other than the one which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.” (1 Corinthians 3:10-11 NASB)

In order to be rewarded at the end of our lives, the good works we do, must be built upon the foundation of Jesus Christ. If we are simply doing good deeds to make ourselves look good or to get something in return, then we are building on the wrong foundation. We should be doing good because we love our creator, Jesus Christ. That is how we build on the proper foundation.

Not only is it important to build on the right foundation, we must build according to the specifications we are given. If a contractor is hired to build a garage out of brick, he should not expect to get paid if he builds it with wood. We need to do things God’s way, not our own way. He is the creator and he has the right to tell us what he expects us to do.

If we trust Jesus as we build on the right foundation we can expect the reward of eternal life. Still, we can miss out on other rewards because we did not follow God like we should have. “Now if any man builds upon the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, each man’s work will become evident; for the day will show it, because it is to be revealed with fire; and the fire itself will test the quality of each man’s work.” (1 Corinthians 3:12-13 NASB)

Imagine if the owner of the garage did not want a window on the south side, but the carpenter decided it would be a good idea to have one. The owner then refused to pay for that window, because it was not what he wanted. Some of what we do in life could be like that. We put in effort in life, but if it was not what God required, we will miss out on the reward for it. As God tests our works we can expect both gain and loss for what we did. “If any man’s work which he has built upon it remains, he shall receive a reward. If any man’s work is burned up, he shall suffer loss; but he himself shall be saved, yet so as through fire.” (1 Corinthians 3:14-15 NASB)

All Christians can expect to suffer both reward and loss of reward. But if we have given our lives to Jesus, we will be saved from his wrath. I want to get as many rewards as possible, because that is how I glorify my creator. The more rewards we have, the more gifts we will be able to present to him. I know I will not reach perfection though. That is why he came.

Since Jesus is the foundation we are to build upon, we get to glorify him both as we build and once we are rewarded for our work for him. Let us strive to do the best work we can for our savior. Let us strive to hear him say, well done good and faithful servant. www.southtownchurch.com

HISTORY REVISITED

By Gaynor Johnson

I'm writing this on Tuesday, March 25 and they are forecasting temperatures in the low 80's on Friday and then rain or snow over the weekend. This is not uncommon for this time of the year as the seasons are changing from winter to spring.

Last week I mentioned that everyone should get their lawn mowers ready because I had noticed the grass around Canton was turning from a dull, boring brown to green. This got me thinking of a song called "Greening Up" that I use to play when I had my little show on KAUR in Sioux Falls. This song was written by a very fine songwriter, David Mallett, and it appeared on his 2006 live CD Midnight on the Water. It always made me feel hopeful especially if we'd had a very long, cold and snowy winter, something we didn't have this year.

Living in South Dakota, we get to experience the entire spectrum of weather that Mother Nature has available to her from blistering heat in July to the bone chilling subzero blizzards of January. I think it makes us all appreciate that first really warm day knowing we could still get snow but it will quickly melt away.

Before I sign off, I'd just like to remind you to vote on April 8 in our Municipal Election. There are three fine upstanding and intelligent citizens running to fill the seat of Commissioner Tyler Larson. His term is expiring and he has decided not to run for re-election. Your choices are Pam Gillespie, Todd Baldwin and Sarah Carlson. Please do your civic duty and decide who you want to help guide our fair city through the next five years. Voting will not increase your chances of winning the lottery but you may sleep better knowing that your voice was heard. Happy reading as the month of April arrives and soon our prairie community will be "greening up real good."

Greenin' Up
by David Mollett

There's an old horse in the pasture and just like me he's seen his better days Well he sniffs the air this mornin' and his eyes take on an old familiar glaze
He kicks his heels, throws his head an' looks right at me like I understood that it's springtime in the country, and the pasture grass is greenin' up real good

There's a bullfrog in the bog behind my house, and he'll be making such a sound
long late in the afternoon, right up 'till the evening sun goes down he's happy to be living in a world of fiddleheads and rotten wood and it's springtime in the country and the pasture grass is greenin' up real good

CHORUS:
It's greenin' up real good, lookin' mighty fine
every little seed, comin' right on time
up across the field, up into the wood
it's greenin' up real good

Well, I work all day in the garden
this time of year there's just too much to do but there's a fishin' pole in the corner and it's strung up with a line as fine as dew tomorrow there'll be lots of time to do the million things I know I should
and it's springtime in the country and the grass is greenin' up real good.

CHORUS:
It's greenin' up real good, lookin' mighty fine
every little weed, every little vine where the open field gives way to the wood
it's greenin' up real good

It's greenin' up real good, lookin' mighty fine
every little seed, comin' right on time
up across the field, up into the wood
it's greenin' up real good

Colon cancer is the second leading cause of cancer-related deaths in men and women. The lifetime risk of developing colon cancer is 1 in 24 for men and 1 in 26 for women. Early detection and treatment are instrumental at improving survival rates, and regular screening decreases the risk of colon cancer in the first place.

Colonoscopy remains the gold standard for colon cancer screening. While detecting cancer early on is important for survival from any cancer, detecting and removing precancerous polyps during a colonoscopy before they develop into cancer is the main reason regular screenings with colonoscopy have been found to reduce colon cancer rates.

During a colonoscopy, with a patient asleep or sedated under anesthesia, a long flexible scope with a light and a camera is used to look throughout the large intestine, the colon, for any polyps or abnormalities. Those polyps can be removed with a forceps or a loop at the time they are detected. Afterwards, patients are monitored, wake up, have

Bridging Our State

By: Gov. Larry Rhoden
March 28, 2025

We recently cut the ribbon on the new Lt. Commander John C. Waldron Bridge over the Missouri River between Pierre and Ft. Pierre. For the next 100 years, this bridge will connect two communities. But more than that, it will connect two sides of our state.

The Pierre-Ft. Pierre community is perhaps the best example of East River and West River coming together. Pierre is a quintessential East River town – Ft. Pierre is very much a West River town. This community is strongest because it has elements of both sides of the river. In the same way, South Dakota is strongest because two sides of the river come together to form one great state.

I was born and raised a West River rancher. I've always had a lot of love for Ft. Pierre, and West River is still home to this day. In the same breath, I've worked for 20 years on the East side of the river in Pierre – in the legislature, as Lt. Governor, and now as Governor.

Seven years ago, an East River farmer and rancher asked me to be her running mate. We worked very well together because we brought perspectives from both sides of this state to our leadership. When I succeeded Secretary Noem as Governor, I took a page out of her book.

Colon Cancer Screening is Important

something to eat, and are ready to proceed about their day.

Thankfully, a large majority of patients do not have any complications from colonoscopy. The complication rate depends on age and risk factors and the reason for the procedure. The overall rate is approximately 0.5%. The most serious complication risk, a perforation or tear in the colon, is about 1 in 1,000.

Of course, oftentimes the worst part of undergoing a colonoscopy is the preparation beforehand; getting cleaned out. This is important so the physician performing the procedure has a good, thorough look everywhere in the colon. While cumbersome, with new strategies for doing the prep, many people find this process less awful than they used to.

Stool tests have been an easier, cheap, non-invasive method for colon cancer screening for many years. Often these tests look for blood in your stool. The latest, more expensive option, Cologuard, checks for blood and DNA abnormalities, and is the most successful of the stool tests at detecting colon cancer, at 94%. However, it is only about 43% effective at detecting advanced adenomas, those precancerous polyps that are already getting larger and closer to becoming cancer. This limits the test's potential at preventing cancer.

The Cologuard test should not be used for people with risk factors such as a

I asked an East River lawyer, Tony Venhuizen, to serve alongside me.

We need perspectives from all parts of this state. We need people from all walks of life working together to make this state great. And we need bridges like this one connecting us and bringing us together.

That brings us to the new bridge. This bridge is the latest in a long history of structures connecting these two communities. Since the late 1800s, there has been some kind of bridge or another connecting Pierre and Ft. Pierre. The most recent bridge was opened in 1962. In 2002, that bridge was dedicated in honor of Lt. Commander John C. Waldron of Fort Pierre.

Lt. Commander Waldron led a squadron of torpedo bombers in the Battle of Midway during WWII. They were the first to locate and attack the Japanese fleet. They went up against impossible odds – he and all 15 aircraft with him were lost. But their sacrifice paved the way for American dive bombers to devastate the Japanese fleet.

The new bridge remains dedicated to Lt. Commander Waldron. In a lot of ways, the old bridge paved the way for the new one – just as Lt. Commander Waldron paved the way for the dive bombers behind him.

Celebrating a Legacy: Tom Zingler Retires After Decades of Service

After 45 years of dedicated service, Tom Zingler is officially retiring from Southeastern Electric, leaving behind a remarkable legacy of hard work, dedication and commitment to safety.

Zingler recalls the beginning of his journey in the electric cooperative industry, "I started as summer help at Lincoln-Union Electric (now Southeastern Electric) in the spring of 1980. I enjoyed the challenge and the physical aspect of the job." He officially joined the co-op as an apprentice in December 1980. He continued his education and training and became a journeyman, foreman and ultimately took on a role as the safety coordinator. "The best part of the job has been the people - I've made lifelong friends. Our cooperative is a community, a family," he shares.

Reflecting on how the electric utility industry has evolved, he emphasized the vast improvements in safety. "When I first started, we didn't have voltage detectors and couldn't determine if a line was hot. We would free-climb poles and did not have fire-resistant clothing. Safety has come such a long way," he says.

Among his proudest accomplishments is helping foster a strong safety culture. Tom implemented Southeastern Electric's safety committee and safety program, and he played a key role in introducing critical safety measures such as fall protection, harnesses in the buckets and fire-resistant clothing. He also completed the Certified Loss Control Professional (CLCP) training, an intensive

When asked what legacy he hopes to leave behind, Tom humbly stated, "I hope I made a difference." Tom encourages younger employees to never stop learning. "Don't be afraid to grow - the industry is constantly changing and there is always something new to learn. Working at Southeastern Electric is a great career - you won't find a better one out there."

Looking ahead, Zingler is excited for the next phase of life. "We've done a lot of traveling across the U.S., especially to national parks. We love Estes Park and plan continue to hold our family reunions there."

As Southeastern Electric says goodbye to a valued coworker, we thank Tom for his years of service and his invaluable contributions. His dedication to safety and teamwork has influenced the safety culture of our cooperative. Congratulations, Tom, on a well-earned retirement!

SEAMLESS GUTTERS GUTTER GUARD

CALL 605-291-9053

Letters to the Editor

I am writing this letter out of concern of the lack of drainage laws in Lincoln County. Two years ago I called the now former county commissioner concerning a large drain tile project one mile south of my residence, which affected a county highway already facing frequent flooding and also affected a very low lying spot on my own property. His response to me was “These tiling laws have really gotten loose!” I responded to him that maybe it was time to tighten them! That’s the last I heard from him.

Just in the last few weeks, a landowner just next to that property installed a very large pump station which will now flood that same county highway and my property even worse. I called the current county commissioner and left her a voicemail concerning this matter. I heard nothing back. Which is not a surprise from someone who voted herself a substantial taxpayer pay-raise her first day on the job.

There are other counties in South Dakota that have drainage ordinances in effect that the landowners downstream must sign off before proceeding with these large projects. There is a local tiling contractor in Lincoln County that targets a few people with an open checkbook and non-farming income such as former convenience store owners and former heart surgeons. He also does not seem to care about anyone down stream as long as he can charge someone hundred of thousands of dollars to sell his product.

The Lincoln County Commission seems to have no rules and regulations in place on much of anything. They let the large corporate dairy farm do as they please in Southern Lincoln County. They let anyone pump and dump water on anyone downstream. It won’t be long and the southern half of the county will consist of a few corporate dairy farms and a handful of people from Iowa farming the ground for them.

Foolin around OFF The Road With Jerry

This boy was tossed up in the air by this playful large bear in Yellowstone park about a mile off the main hiking trail. This group of boys were told not to leave the trail and they also forgot to bring a can of bear spray repellent along. Eventually the bear tired of the game and the boy joined his friends again.

This high bluff point was in north west Newton Hills, by the old boy Scout Camp. These guys were hiking up here to camp. These guys were hiking up here to enjoy the view over the old arrow creek, a tributary of Sargent Creek. This old faded photo was from around 1904 by these hikers who were trying to map out the north area. But strong floods thru the years washed this bluff down into the creek.

This worker is getting this oversized large guitar up to a large store to display it. These special guitars were made for special native people in Mexico. They were very good musicians, but these were very tall people and they wanted larger instruments such as this.

This is one of the newly trained tracking drug dogs. They are equipped with intensity lens to keep sun glare down in the hot desert north of the border. These glasses also magnified good on distant objects, giving the dogs a better chance of running down criminal and pushers trying to hide in the desert.

This insect scientist working on creating much larger bees. The country’s bee population is dropping rapidly. Thanks to this lab scientist, these large bees could make many more gallons of honey. It will take 15 to 17 feet high hives to allow rooms for this large bees.

This double large lighting strike was taken at Lake Lakota a few years ago when it still had water. This lighting bolt hit a 16 foot aluminum boat and melted it in half. The guys on it saw the bad storm coming and they did not think they could make it back to the dock. So they just jumped out and swam to safety on the east shore.

This is another drug dog trained to find if suspects flushed any evidence down the toilet.

Washington

Washington, D.C. – Today, U.S. Representative Dusty Johnson (R-S.D.) announced the 2025 Congressional Art Competition and encourages South Dakota high school students to submit their artwork. The competition puts the artwork of South Dakota students in the U.S. Capitol building. The South Dakota Arts Council (SDAC) is now accepting entries on behalf of Rep. Johnson’s office.

The contest is open to all South Dakota students in grades 9-12. The first-place winning entry will be displayed in the Cannon Tunnel of the United States Capitol for one year. The second-place winning entry will be displayed in Johnson’s Washington, D.C. office for one year.

“There are so many talented and creative young artists in South Dakota, and through this program, we get the chance to celebrate that,” said Johnson. “Please share your artwork with us and help us showcase South Dakota in the halls of Congress.”

Only digital submissions will be accepted. Students should send one email including a high-resolution JPEG image, along with a completed, typed PDF of the student release form to rebecca.cruse@state.sd.us. Submissions must be received by 11:59 PM CT, on Tuesday, April 15. Winners will be notified by Thursday, April 17, and will be responsible for shipping their artwork and student release forms to the SDAC office. The South Dakota Arts Council will have the artwork framed and will ship it to Washington, D.C. for the student.

Please review the artwork specifications, guidelines, and instructions before submitting and download the student release form at <https://artscouncil.sd.gov/CAC/index.aspx>.

The Congressional Art Competition is sponsored by the Congressional Institute and members of the U.S. House of Representatives. It’s an opportunity to recognize and encourage the artistic talent in the nation, as well as in each congressional district. The South Dakota Arts Council partners with Congressman Johnson’s office to carry out this initiative.

The South Dakota Arts Council, an office of the South Dakota Department of Tourism, is a state agency serving South Dakotans and their communities through the arts with funding from the National Endowment for the Arts and the State of South Dakota.

Preventing Foreign Interference

BIG Update

It’s important to honor the sacrifices our service members have made to protect our freedoms. Last week, I recognized 15 Vietnam-era veterans in Sturgis and thanked them for their service to our country.

Through the Vietnam Veteran Commemoration Program, I’ve recognized more than 1,100 veterans since 2019. This program is being phased out by the Department of Defense (DOD) this November. When Congress created the program, the funding provided to honor veterans was to be used until expended. So today, I asked the DOD for a status update. If sufficient funds remain, I would like the Secretary to consider extending the program until all resources are expended, so as many veterans as possible are honored.

If you know a Vietnam-era veteran, please submit a nomination soon to ensure they receive their much-deserved recognition. Veterans can be nominated by filling out the form at dustyjohnson.house.gov/services/vietnam-veteran-commemoration or by calling my Sioux Falls Office at 605-275-2868.

BIG Idea

America’s foreign adversaries, like the Chinese Communist Party (CCP), are targeting our universities with lucrative funding. While universities are required to report these funds under the Higher Education Act, many go unreported or are incompletely reported. In 2019, up to 70% of institutions failed to comply with the reporting requirements.

Our adversaries do not share American values and through these funds, they are able to push propaganda, interfere with research, and censor free speech at universities. A congressional investigation into two research universities found nearly $40 million in unreported contracts with the CCP and billions of foreign funding provided anonymously. This cannot be tolerated.

To remedy this, I voted to pass the DETERRENT Act to ensure our colleges disclose these funds, including any financial support from countries of concern, such as China and Russia. This will increase transparency and accountability in higher education and protecting national security. The DETERRENT Act will strengthen the ability to track foreign influence and protect our young adults from the malign influence of our adversaries.

BIG News

This week, the world found out that a journalist was inadvertently added to a Signal group chat where high-ranking government officials discussed military operations to attack the Houthi terrorists. This is a big mistake and can never happen again. While the mission was successful, if this information got into the wrong hands, U.S. military men and women could have been in big trouble and the operation could have failed.

As our national security leaders continue to protect the United States and target terrorists, I hope they will discuss these plans in appropriate settings.

Like a lot of people from Canton, I headed out to Rapid City over the weekend but they were having more fun at the little kids state wrestling tournament because I was helping Chase moving from Hill City To Rapid City and I am not sure how a single man could have so many heavy things. We moved Friday till late Saturday but it felt really good when we got all his stuff to the new apartment. I know we had a lot of young wrestlers both boys and girls and I should have figured out a way to get them to come haul stuff to warm up before the wrestling started. We got it all moved and into his new place and my old body will pay for that but I am glad he got moved and not driving so far to work and I am glad I could help for that. I hope everyone made it back from Rapid either Saturday or Sunday as I drove back Sunday afternoon and it was about 100 MPH less wind than on Friday when I drove out there so that was nice and roads were clear and the only thing, I saw was a big vehicle on its side in a ditch and it looked like they got more snow than anywhere else on I90.

I have a couple congratulations to pass out and first is Jenna VandeWeerd as she made the All-Conference team which is great in our conference since it’s the toughest in the state and then Jenna made 2nd Team All State which is also a great accomplishment too. Jenna this season played all the games and just about the entire game every time she was there and her stats were 19.8 points per game with 12.2 rebounds a game along with 71 blocks. She ended her career on the courts here at Canton as the leading rebounder with 815 for her career and I think she ended up in 5th spot in scoring so great career on the courts. Jenna also was a very good volleyball player and last seasons discus state champion with that season coming up real soon so she will be getting ready to defend that title in May. Jenna will be heading to Orange City to be part of the Northwestern College Red Raiders women basketball team.

Canton also got Camyrn Skiles named in the conference Honorable Mention and being named in the Dak 12 All-Conference list is pretty good so congrats to both and then another recognition for the basketball players is when Alex Rhead was named Dak 12 Honorable Mention and that’s huge considering how tough the conference in the boys division was this year so congratulations to Alex and we need you to lead the way even more next year as we try to improve to team.

Helping Law Enforcement Combat the Fentanyl Crisis

By Sen. John Thune

More Americans die each year from a drug overdose than Americans who died in the entirety of the Vietnam War. Many of these deaths are caused by a single pill containing a lethal dose of fentanyl, which is roughly equal to five grains of salt. We’re losing young people, teenagers, and young parents – people with bright lives ahead of them.

The fentanyl crisis is affecting South Dakota as well. Last year, police in Sioux Falls seized enough fentanyl to kill 2.5 million people. Law enforcement reports that cartels have a presence in our area. And the price of a single pill has dropped from $40 a few years ago to $5 per pill today, largely because of increasing supply.

Most of the fentanyl in our communities – including in South Dakota – is not manufactured in the United States. Securing the border is a critical step to stopping the flow of drugs. In just a few short weeks, President Trump has made significant progress on this front, dramatically slowing the flow of illegal crossings at the southern border. And with less chaos, Border Patrol can focus on the criminals, cartels, terrorists, and traffickers that used to try to hide behind the surges of illegal immigrants.

But there’s more work to do. That’s why the U.S. Senate recently passed the HALT Fentanyl Act, which would provide law enforcement with critical tools to combat fentanyl. This bill would permanently classify fentanyl and fentanyl-related substances as Schedule I drugs, empowering law enforcement to keep pace with the evolving threat of fentanyl that is driving drug overdoses in our country.

Until a few years ago, these fentanyl-related substances were generally classified as Schedule II substances, meaning they were less tightly regulated and violations carried lighter penalties. If a particular substance was moved up to Schedule I, cartels would just alter the chemical composition slightly to avoid a crackdown. But those drugs were no less deadly.

That ended in 2018 when President Trump temporarily classified all fentanyl-related substances as Schedule I drugs. Congress has extended that temporary listing

Lincoln County Commissioners Discuss IT Wages

With all members present, the Lincoln County Board of Commissioners met Tuesday, March 25 in the Lincoln County Boardroom. Commissioners heard agenda items including budget supplements, wage increases and bid approvals.

Chairwoman Landeen read the description of a public hearing to consider an application for a temporary on-sale malt beverage license to operate outside the municipality for Lennox Baseball & Softball Association, LBSA for an event to occur on April 26, 2025, Located at the Lincoln County Fairgrounds, 27711 Hwy 17, Lennox, SD 57039, legally described as 34.12 Acres in NE Quarter including railroad property Section 29-Township 99- N Range 51 West of the 5th principal meridian Lincoln County SD. The applicant was present to give background on the event. “Ducks Unlimited is hosting their annual fundraiser, however, they’re kind of short on staff and whatnot, so they also like to interact with their guests at the event, so they asked somebody to step up in the community and do their soda, alcohol sales, and stuff like that, so they aren’t taking people away from entertaining guests,” he said. With no proponents or opponents in the crowd, a motion to approve was made by Schmidt, seconded by Otten, motion carried.

Auditor Sheri Lund was present for a public hearing pursuant to SDCL 7-21-22, for the purpose of adopting the following supplements to the 2025 Budget: A supplement adding to the debt service TIF #8 budget for 204,000 for current taxes and principal payments, a supplement adding to the Commission budget to fees and contracts in the amount of $150,000 per resolution 2412-48 dated 12-24-2024, a supplement adding to the Coroner budget to fees and transports in the amount of $6,000 per resolution 2412-18 dated 12-10-2024, a supplement adding to Other Economic Assistance budget in the amount of $67,393.75 per resolution 2412-22 passed on 12-10-2024, a supplement adding to the Sheriff’s budget in the amount of $33,000 per resolution multiple times because it works. It’s time to permanently classify fentanyl-related substances as what they are: the deadliest kind of drugs.

I’m grateful to the men and women in law enforcement and first responders who work every day to go after drug dealers and save lives. The HALT Fentanyl Act would provide law enforcement with critical tools to go after the people bringing into our country the fentanyl that is killing our fellow Americans, and I’m proud it’s one of the first bills passed under the new Republican majority.

2412-15 passed on 12-10-2024. Commissioner Arends stated in the document the payments were not made in 2024 and asked her to clarify. “The opioid distribution, you had authorized them to be made in December of 2024, it never got processed, so the budget authority then had went away for 2024, so we needed to give you the budget authority again in 2025 to process the checks,” she said. Chairwoman Landeen asked for proponents or opponents and Linda Montgomery stood to voice her opinion. “I will admit that I’m a little lost on this public hearing for the for the supplements. We’re adding a supplement already to the 2025 budget and two weeks ago it was $70,000 in addition for architecture for the justice center and then I’m looking here at another addition to the budget. Maybe I’m not understanding this clearly of why we are already doing an addition to the budget and I am opposed to this until I have further understanding,” she said. Chairwoman Landeen gave Auditor Lund an opportunity to address Montgomery’s concerns. “We had to supplement the budget due to resolutions that the board has passed, the $70,000 that Linda is referring to is part of the bonding that is not part of the budget process in this context. These are resolutions that were passed by the board, so in order to have the money spent, the budget needs to be increased because the board already approved the spending,” Lund responded. Motion to approve the supplements made by Otten, seconded by Schmidt, motion carried.

Director of IT, Jake Oakland requested board discussion with possible action to follow for wage changes within the Information Technology Department. “I’m here to seek authorization for the potential to increase the salaries for the IT Director and the systems administrator for the department. We have an opening that recently happened in our office, and with that we did a survey to see what the title’s are out there and what every county is using and how they’re paying, and we noticed a discrepancy that we feel would be a great asset to the county to keep retention for the IT department,” he said. Oakland stated there will be no increase to the 2025 budget, even with the possible new hire. Commissioner Putnam asked Oakland how many times he has been approached by other companies. “I would say that it’s happened,” Oakland responded. “I’m looking at this in the respects that you are kind of the top of the food chain as far as taking care of business in this county courthouse, I just wanted to make people aware of the fact that there are people always looking for people,” Putnam said. A motion to approve the wage change by Otten, seconded by Schmidt, the motion carried unanimously.

Highway Superintendent, Terry Fluit requested board action to purchase a base stabilizing agent off the Harding County bid from Team Lab for $27/gallon. “We are probably going to need about 11 totes, again, we’re going to be using this for a project on County Road 134 this year. We’re going to be doing FDR and stabilization and repaving of that road,” Fluit said. Motion by Putnam, seconded by Schmidt, motion carried.

Lincoln County Sheriff, Steve Swenson was present for a Sheriff’s Department presentation. “We currently have 22 deputies including sergeants and the patrol lieutenant, nine employees in the jail, five in civil, and 13 in communications for a total of 53 employees,” Sheriff Swenson stated. Sheriff Swenson oversees the 24/7 budget, the jail budget, the communication center budget, and the sheriff’s office budget. In 2024, the department handed out 2,904 citations, 3,532 warnings, and had 29 juvenile summons. “When I look at the numbers, one is trending down, and I credit this to the work the deputies are doing, and that’s the burglaries. They’ve got a system on these storage units which is our number one thing that gets hit, but they’ve pushed it down by 30 per cent,” Swenson said. In 2025, Sheriff Swenson feels call volume is right on track with last year, and this year has already collected $111,803.53 in grant money for the department.
